Our teachers help us learn new things every day. Our teachers use books and computers to help us learn.

What new things are you learning at school?

Friends share.
Friends care.
Friends take turns.
Friends are fair.

These standards are representative of common kindergarten social studies curriculum standards. Please use them as a guideline to determine which of your state's standards are addressed. You may view a detailed correlation of your state's social studies standards with this publication at studiesweekly.com.

- Recognize the importance of U.S. symbols.
- Describe the relative location of people, places and things by using positional words.
- Describe the different kinds of jobs that people do and the tools or equipment used.
- Demonstrate the characteristics of being a good citizen.

The Pledge of Allegiance

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

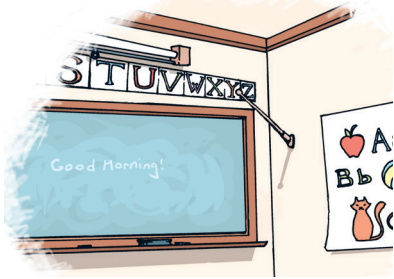

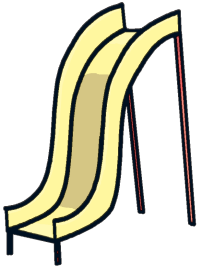

The word "pledge" means "to promise."

The colors of the American flag are red, white, and blue. Where is the flag in your classroom?
